

Together:

Parents:

Father: Thalanil

Mother: Elénaril

Both parents alcoholics and abused us, but in different ways

19 years old

5' 6"

- Parents wanted sons but got twin daughters instead
 - Forced mel to dress and act like a boy (kept her hair short and she wore masculine clothes and stuff)
 - Lem was allowed to be a girl (she wore dresses and her hair was long)
- Parents are nobility, stern house, well known, quite cold/emotionally unavailable, they drank a lot at home
 - Mother has affinity for emotions (used that to train Mel to control her emotions)
 - Father has affinity for dreams (used that to punish Lem when she misbehaved)
- Lemon backstory stuff:
 - When she was 11 she chopped her hair in a fit of rebellion, got her ass beat, was very sad. Her hair has been short since and she lowkey realised it was curly after she started taking care of it properly
 - When she was twelve she ran away from home at night for the first time, met aries (this was when she manifested her affinity maybe?)
 - Aries has the vibe of starboy and jack wolfe gabe and i think that's a really fun concept
 - He did try to "there's a world" her but she was like nah twin instead of cutting me i can cut ties with my parents!

- Ran away because she didn't manifest by 16, and parents were getting more and more violent
- Very much was the backup child, treated as the spare
- When she ran away, she was gone for at least a month before she's like god damn it i can't leave Mel alone there. Then she visits once, twice, then another bit passes, she visits again, then a longer bit passes, and then the next time she visits is when she takes Mel with her?
- Melody backstory shit:
 - Mother pulled on emotions a lot from a young age, made her very volatile and difficult to regulate
 - Manifested at 6 when mom pulled on her emotions and she pushed back, caused a snapback on both of them
 - Mom trained her after that
 - Mel was the "star child", given lots of attention, always expected to be perfect
 - Hair kept short and forced to wear more boyish clothes because parents wanted boys
 - Always told to man up, wasn't allowed to show emotions (was punished if she did show emotions even though mother was pulling on them)
 - Lots of emotional manipulation and whiplash
 - Every fight, training session, verbal assault, ended with "I love you" from mom. Never an apology given
 - Mel was taught early to take responsibility for everything that goes wrong; when she was young she overapologized for everything
 - Now apologies mean nothing to her, a means to an end ("I said sorry, aren't we good now? Whatever I don't care anymore.")
 - "I love you" said to her is triggering sometimes, but she usually laughs it off
- Parents have rare magic
 - Dad can manipulate dreams, mom can manipulate emotions
 - Mel's emotions often riled and she was constantly told to man up and have more control

- Lem sneaking out at night to avoid the nightmares her father caused (usually sleep deprived, definitely sleep deprived when met Aries)

Learned to support ourselves, we both know how to make food, but have different specialties

Melody says "Back when I was your age" and says something that happened 7 minutes (age gap) ago

"Back when I was your age, I had people begging me to take care of them" Seven minutes ago, Lemon asked her what's for dessert

Melody:

Older by a few minutes, born the next day

Melody was verbally and emotionally abused

Melody learned to fight to protect Lemon

Melody more closed off, she has a wall up

Melody is great at baking, and enjoys it. It helps her because it's scientific. If she does the same thing, she'll get the same result every time. It's reliable.

Favourite food is Lemon Garlic Gnocchi (<https://www.instagram.com/p/DBJTcT9PVjO/>)

Lemon:

Lemon Physically abused

Lemon is more comfortable being emotional

Retreats when she's afraid of getting (physically) hurt, pulls away

Lemon is great at cooking but doesn't enjoy it. She'll cook if she's bored though

Favourite food is Lemon Rolls (https://www.instagram.com/p/DBRNW_1oAAF/)

Loves anything Lemon flavoured

Does not like chocolate

Fav board game is chess
